A Word About Guide Information... Because guide information is prepared many months in advance to being published, the Newark Recreation and Community Services Department cannot guarantee that all classes and programs have up to date information. There may be times that the program information changes (i.e. time, location, cost, etc); therefore, your customer receipt should be relied on for correct information. If you are ever unsure of your class information after you have registered, please contact us prior to the day of your class to confirm the details.
